University of Biskra

Contribution to no poverty efforts

In accordance with Law No. 98-11 of 22 August 1998 on the orientation and program law with a five-year projection for scientific research and technological development; Law No. 99-05 of 4 April 1999 on the orientation of higher education; Executive Decree No. 219-98 of 8 July 1998 establishing the University of Biskra; Executive Decree No. 90-09 of 17 February 2009; and Executive Decree No. 129-14 of 5 April 2014,

The University of Biskra contributes to and supports programs aimed at reducing poverty among students, particularly those in need, by granting all students the following benefits, in line with other Algerian university institutions:

1. A monthly scholarship for non-salaried students;
2. Free education;
3. Free access to courses, training workshops, practical sessions, teaching laboratories, research laboratories, university libraries, internships, sports facilities and the university's cultural activity rooms;
4. Provision of prepared meals in university refectories for all students at a highly subsidised price;
5. Subsidised urban and semi-urban transport for all students at a very low price;
6. Subsidised university accommodation for all students at a very low price;
7. Free provision of health services (consultations, general care, dental care, etc.).

Furthermore, the University of Biskra supports efforts to combat poverty by organizing and participating in scientific and cultural events at the local, regional, national and international levels.
